Camp Mysore

4th May 1914

My dear Visvesvaraya,

1 A judicial Conference has been asked for in the Dasara Representative Assembly often. Hitherto we have not thought it necessry to grant it But now it has struck me that it would be just as well to have one at the next Birthday season. As the time is short, I have made a sketch of what might be done. If you support the scheme, please obtain the sanction of His Highness and wire to me to Bangalore. I shall go ahead and make all necessary arrangements. These may be tentative for this year, and we may alter rules and procedure as we may consider advisable later on. The assembly may be held also in Bangalore (say in alternate years) but we may have it in Mysore this year and need not at present bind ourselves as to time and place for the future.

2 The members may be the following:-

(a) All the members of the Council (or the Judicial Member alone),

(b) Judges of the Chief Court

(c) District Judges and District Magistrates,

(d) All Sub-Judges and Munsiffs and First Class Magistrates in Mysore (on visit or duty) at the time,

(e) Members of Legislative Council

(f) All advocates of ten years standing,

(g) ? Other Legal Practitioners of 20 years standing,

(h) ? Half a dozen private gentlemen not being lawyers or Judicial Officers,

(i) ? The Inspector General of Police and two or three experienced Police Superintendents.

3 If you do not care to preside ypurself, the Judicial Council -lor may be the President and either the Registrar of the Chief Court or Secretary of the Judicial Department may be Secretary.

4 We shall have to spend some money for refreshments, perhaps a party &c., but it is not likely to be much.

5 As for subjects, the following may be taken as the basis of a programme.

I. Personnel for administration of Justice and recruitment,

(a) Judges, Magistrates, and powers of Magis-

Magistrates,

(b) Legal Practitioners,

(c) Law officers of Government.

II. Procedure

(a) To secure speedy disposal, such for example as efficient service of process, prevention of unnecessary adjournments, arrangement of work, conduct of cases by lawyers &c.

(b) Efficacious and speedy execution of decrees

III. Amendment of Laws and rules.

(a) New Legislative measures,

(b) Rules of practice and unification of procedure

(c) Case law, Precedents &c.

This will give a programme sufficiently comprehensive and may give work for two or three days. The dates will have to be fixed with reference to other engagements.

6 If the proposal is approved in a preliminary way, further details will be worked out and such alterations as may be desirable may be put in.

I shall feel obliged if you will treat the matter as urgent and send me a reply as soon as practicable.

Yours Sincerely

H. Manjunadayya

Dear sir,

12 I enclose herwith, for His Highness information, copy of a D.O. letter from the First Member of Council, and my reply thereto, regarding the holding of a Judicial Conference at Mysore during the next Birthday season. I am ~~of opinion~~ inclined to think that a Conference of the kind referred to by the First Member is likely to result in ~~a clearer appreciation of the difficulties in the way of quick despatch of business in the Judicial administration~~ minimising laws delays and may ~~help to the attainment of~~ lead to a higher standard of efficiency in that department.

13 I solicit His Highness's kind sanction to the holding of the Conference this year & Endeavour will be made to keep down ~~the~~ expenditure ~~that may be necessary as low as possible.~~ as low as possible. The experience gained in this year's conference will enable us to decide whether it may be continued in future years.

Serial No. 20

In connection with the proposed Judicial Conference I have suggested 5 drafts for consideration and orders. The drafts are substantially in accordance with the views of the First member on record as also those communicated to me in person this morning.

21 In the list of Subjects only 9 & 10 are new. In the list of persons, I have not included Advocates on the ground as troublesome questions about travelling allowances, accommodation &c. will arise. The number of such advocates is fairly large (39). Even without them, the Strength of the Conference will not be slight (70).

22 As regards cost, only the Office charges and a few other contingencies will have to be provided for. If the proposal to hold the Conference is sanctioned finally, an order for placing a Sum of Rs 300 as advance at the disposal of the Secretary to the Conference, subject to adjustment in due course, is all that appears necessary.

(First member) D. M. Narasimha Rao 14/5

23 I have suggested a few changes & queried one or two points. The drafts may be submitted to the Dewan.

24 A few rules (Subsidiary) have to be drawn up about

Dear sir,

111 D.S. Please go ahead as I see the draft since today will have to adopt calm and file suit up with draft rules

38 The file regarding the holding of a Judicial Conference at Mysore during the Birthday season was received by me today at about 4 P.M. with the formal orders of His Highness sanctioning the proposals. I solicit instructions on two points of detail before the order is issued.

39 In the draft list of Members of the Conference approved by you, the Members of His Highness the Maharaja's Council were also included, apparently because the suggestion then was that the Dewan should himself preside over the Conference. As the situation has now changed, I submit for orders whether the Members of Council should now be expressly mentioned in the list. My own opinion which I venture to offer respectfully is that the names of the Members of Council may be omitted.

41 I agree

40 With reference to the non-official gentlemen whose names have been entered in the list, the Dewan suggests that you may decide as to whether Mr. Vardhamanayya, Sowcar, Mysore or Mr. Anantharajiah should be invited to the Conference. I solicit instructions as to which of the two gentlemen should be requested to attend the Conference.

24

42

Vardhamanayya may be invited.
